

Project of organization SOS Children's villages Bulgaria

Project title	A chance to stay in my family – centre for family counselling and support of children and families at risk - Sofia
Source of financing	PHARE – Deinstitutionalization through provision of services in the community for groups at risk
Duration	March 2007 – June 2008
Overall goal/s	Increased opportunities for children at risk to grow-up and develop in family environment by strengthening the system of community-based social services and by producing higher accessibility to those services. Project partners: Foundation for the Young and the Adult; "Orphan" foundation
Target groups	Children from 3 to 18 years of age at risk of abandonment on the territory of Sofia city Families at risk to abandon their children School-age children with behavior problems  Professionals, working in the sphere of social policy and social activities with children and families
Project activities	Produce programmes for the services provided by the Center Establish multi-functional networks Direct work with clients Support and training of personnel of the Family counseling and support Center Promote the action and services provided by the center
Results	Within the frame of the project integrated social services were developed and provided in the community – social, psychological and legal consultations for children at risk from 3 to 18 years of age and their families on the territory of Sofia city through the establishment of a Center for family counseling and support and mobile social work.
Contact person	Boriana Rashkova, Center for community support, Sofia at SOS Children's villages Bulgaria